A BIG TRADE REVIEW

The Sun Will Issue One Next Month—Will Be a Work of Art and Should Do Much to Advertise the City.

During the month of February The Sun will issue one of the most valuable industrial trade reviews ever published in the southwest. The Review will be in the interest of our leading merchants, manufacturers, business and professional men, and will outline the success achieved by each, in the past, and tell their plans for the future. A brief history of Paducah, its growth, present wonderful prosperous condition and future outlook for 1903 will be touched upon. It is a well known fact that the past year has been a remarkably successful one for Paducah business interests. The many natural advantages, the superior transportation facilities, which Paducah enjoys is in a great measure responsible for its increasing importance as a commercial center, all these points will be brought out.

The issue will be attractively illustrated by half tone cuts of our prominent business men and manufacturing plants, and thousands of extra copies will be printed in addition to the regular circulation. The Spring Trade Review will be published in both the daily and weekly issues, and great numbers sent out through the mails.

LIVE AT MARION

SHERIFF OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY MARRIED IN PADUCAH YESTER DAY.

Mr. J. Watts Lamb, sheriff of Crittenden county, and Miss Henrietta Daniel, both of Marion, were yesterday married at the residence of Mr. William McMahon on South Fourth street, Rev. O. W. Perryman officiating. Mr. Lamb is only 26 years of age and is one of the most popular young officers in that county. He was elected sheriff a year ago by the biggest majority that a candidate for any office in that county ever received. He is a progressive man and has hundreds of friends who will receive the news of the marriage with much pleasure. His bride is a popular belle of Marion and is a favorite with her many friends and acquaintances. The couple departed yesterday afternoon late for home. Mrs. Lamb is a sister-in-law of Mr. Louis Belmont, the well known stamp deputy here.

Mr. Stuart (Hanna, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Paducah, accompanied by Mr. Vaughan Dabney, was on the train en route to the state Y. M. C. A. convention at Frankfort.

"The actual shaking up was not as great as might have been expected," said Mr. Dabney. "We were rolled about considerably, of course, but the worst part was the fright and the fear that we would be ground to pieces any moment."

BLOODY AFFRAY AT JOPPA.

Oscar Faust, Herman Allen and Boyd Shelton, the latter a barber formerly of Metropolis, Ill., had a difficulty Saturday at Joppa and Shelton was out on the right arm and shot in the right shoulder. Faust was out on the face and neck by Shelton after the latter's face had been slapped. The trouble arose at the table of the boarding house and finally Shelton and Faust went into the hall to settle their differences, with the above result, Allen becoming involved because he is Faust's brother-in-law.

WAS TIRED OF LIFE SABBATH SERVICES

Stella Meadows Wanted to Escape a Life of Shame.

Left a Note to Her Father Saying the Only Way Was to Die.

TOOK LARGE DOSE MORPHINE

A young woman going by the name of Pearl Ford, but supposed to be Stella Meadows, of Zenith, Ill., committed suicide last night at Ida Eastwood's resort on West Court street in order to escape a life that had become unbearable to her.

She was about 25 years old, good looking and came here recently from Illinois. She first lived at Mollie Nell's, but a few days ago went to the Eastwood place. Yesterday, it is claimed, she drank heavily, and in the afternoon about 4 o'clock left the house for the purpose, it now appears, of purchasing morphine.

About 7 o'clock another girl went to her room and found her in a semi-conscious state. She said that she had taken 20 cents worth of morphine, and gave the girl a letter and asked her to send it to her father, but it was afterwards learned the letter did not contain his address.

Physicians were summoned and after working with her for several hours it became evident that she could not recover and she died this morning about 6 o'clock.

Coroner Peal held an inquest at 9 o'clock. The letter she left for her father but neglected to address, is as follows:

"Frank Meadows, Dear Father: I am tired of living the life I am living and the only way I can get out is to die and I want you to put me away nice and I want to be dressed in white and please raise my babe right for I am not fit to stay with it—so by by. From Pearl."

The evidence before the coroner's jury developed the fact that the girl went by the name of Pearl Ford here, and the baby she mentions in her letter was probably left at her home in Illinois, as she did not have it here.

The verdict of the jury was suicide by morphine poisoning. The remains were taken to Mattil and Effinger's to be prepared for burial and held until relatives can be communicated with, and some disposition ordered of the body.

Some of her acquaintances at the home were of the opinion that her home was in Centralia, Tenn., and from her mail it seems that she was from Zenith Wayne county, Tenn.

Small Attendance at the Various Paducah Churches Yesterday.

Former Rabbi Delivers Two Addresses in the City—Good Sermons.

MEETING OF THE MINISTERS

The church attendance yesterday was somewhat interfered with by the weather, an unpromising morning developing into a sleet that rendered walking rather dangerous by night. Strong sermons were delivered from the various pulpits, many of them on themes relating to the closing year, and those who ventured out were well repaid.

Rev. Samuel Frender of Brooklyn, N. Y., spoke yesterday morning at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. and at night at the Broadway Methodist church, and greatly pleased and interested all who heard him. Dr. Frender is an essay and graceful speaker and showed himself a scholar and a thinker. His address, "From Sinai to Calvary," was a masterly handling of a great subject and an eloquent testimony to the power of Christianity and the divinity of Christ. He sang the Twenty-third Psalm in Hebrew and displayed a number of articles of historical interest. Dr. Frender is now a minister in the Congregational church and is a man of much learning and attainments, and made most agreeable impression while here.

An interesting musical service rendered last evening at the Christian church in place of regular sermon, Mr. Pinkerton delivering a short address at the close. The anthem relating to prophecies and birth of Christ was composed and arranged by Mr. Henry Orme and got to music Prof. Wm. Dodd, and this local talent drew many out to hear it. Number of the best musical talent took part in this service, and were finely rendered by Miss Laugstaff, Mrs. Henry Overby, Will Gray, Miss Camille Baker, Emmett Bagby, Mr. J. Henry, Mr. Will Green and Mr. R. H. Staine. The audience was complimentary one, and was a relative of the fine service.

The Ministerial association morning, the importance was a routine business.

MOVE TO MEMPHIS

Illinois Central General Offices to Leave Louisville.

Change Takes Place a Month Sooner Than Expected—Order Received to Move Jan. 1.

IT MAKES A BIG CHANGE

The general offices of the Illinois Central road will be removed to Memphis January 1, just one month ahead of the scheduled time. The edict came from Mr. A. H. Haasos, general passenger agent of the road, with headquarters in Chicago. Thus Louisville will lose the offices sooner than was expected.

The change of plans was made necessary, it is announced, by the premature publication of the shakeup.

Louisville is, of course, a great loser by the rearrangement. Instead of having the general offices there will hereafter be only the headquarters of a division. Mr. Harlow, the division passenger agent at Cincinnati, will be located there permanently. He will be in charge of the Kentucky lines south of the Ohio river. The division agent as far east as Pittsburgh reported there, and likewise the division agent as far southwest as San Antonio. All the intermediate points have been subordinate to Louisville. All is changed under the new arrangement, Memphis becoming the central point.

The moving forward of the time for changing means much inconvenience to all the departments. The heads of departments and clerks will have to make their arrangements in a day or so, and this, of course, a task of no slight proportions.

Mr. Kellond has been making preparations for retiring as assistant general passenger agent and so will not be discommoded by the rearrangement of plans. Mr. John A. Scott, his successor, has been associated with the Illinois Central for years, having been located at Memphis.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Rev. Samuel Freuder of Brooklyn, N. Y., a former Jewish rabbi, spoke to the men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock on "The Talmud," or "Wit and Wisdom of the Ancient Rabbis." The address was excellent and enjoyed by all. After the address the social hour and luncheon was held and a good attendance was present.

There will be an open house on New Year's day at the association, but the program has not yet been arranged. This will be announced later. On the night of New Year's day there will be a week trial held, the trial of a breach of promise suit brought by Wood Brier against Anderson Woods. Attorney will be selected from the legal talent in the association and the case will no doubt attract much attention.

PROF. MAYFIELD TROUBLES.

As the train came out from Paducah last evening there were drunken men on the platform. They were frightened. They shot off their pistols and kept up a racket all the way to Mayfield. Every man on the inside except one was shot from the train.

INDIANA.

of St. Louis, and of Salem, Ind., at the home of the evening, December 31. Marshall county boy and general Paducah newspaper circulation department a go, going from here to St. Louis. He now holds a good position with the street car company.

His Objection to Milburn.

Mr. Milburn, chaplain of the senate, a general favorite because of his personality and his infirmity—he is entirely blind—and will probably retain his office until forced to retire by advancing age, but several years ago when he was chaplain of the house of representatives there was a determined effort to defeat him for reelection and feeling was manifested in the contest both by his supporters and his opponents. Asked what objection he had to the blind chaplain, whose eloquence cannot be questioned, a western representative said: "The fact is, I am tired of hearing Milburn dictate to the Lord day after day what he ought to do."

RUNAWAY MARRIAGE

This Was one in Every Sense of the Word

Princeton Couple United at Metrop. in a Hack with Horses on a Run.

A marriage with unusually romantic features and literally a "runaway" marriage took place yesterday in Metropolis, Ill. Mr. Everett Barnes and Miss Birch Lane, accompanied by Bramy and Miss Rosie Jenkins, of Princeton, Ky., passed through Paducah yesterday on their way to the Gretna Green, leaving at noon and reaching Metropolis in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

After getting the license there was left but seven minutes in which to marry and catch the train, and they were nearly a mile from the depot. Getting into a hack with Justice Thomas Liggett, the horses were started on a dead run for the train, and the ceremony was performed as the carriage sped through the streets.

They reached the depot duly married in time to catch the train, arriving here at 3 o'clock, and left on the first train for Princeton.

MASONIC OFFICERS.

NEW ONES CHOSEN BY THE TWO LOCAL LODGES.

Saturday night the two local Masonic lodges held their regular elections, it being the anniversary of the birth of St. John, and known as St. John's day. Mr. Charles Earhart was re-elected master of Paducah lodge for the third consecutive term, and Capt. B. B. Davis was elected master of Plain City lodge, a position he has held several times before.

The complete list of officers is as follows:

Worshipful master, Charles Earhart, re-elected; senior warden, A. H. Lawrence; junior warden, Z. T. Buchanan; treasurer, J. T. Reddick, re-elected; secretary, Charles Holliday; Tyler, W. C. Lee, re-elected; chaplain, I. O. Wolf, re-appointed; senior deacon, J. T. Sanders, re-elected; junior deacon, Joe Flach; stewards, N. B. Jackson and W. J. Whitehead.

Plain City lodge: Worshipful master, B. B. Davis, succeeding James E. Wilhelm; senior warden, G. O. Ingram; junior warden, C. K. Milam; treasurer, James W. Gleaves, re-elected; secretary, Fred Roth; Tyler, H. W. Hills.

DIED OF EXCESSIVE DRINK.

Frank Covington, colored, employed about Mr. L. C. Perry's, at Seventh and Jackson streets, was found dead in a rear room Saturday night. He had been drinking heavily all day and in the afternoon late came in and drank five glasses of apple brandy and then took a heavy draught out of a bottle. He is supposed to have gone into the back room and died. Coroner Peal held an inquest, the verdict being that Covington came to his death from excessive drinking and exposure.

Paid Record Dividend.

H. P. Davison has resigned the presidency of the Liberty National Bank in New York, to accept the vice presidency of the First National Bank. The latter is one of the three most prominent banks in the Union and holds the record for having paid the largest dividend ever declared by an American banking institution. This was 1,900 per cent, distributed two years ago.

ELECTRIC LINE TO HOPTOWN.

Clarksville, Tenn., Dec. 29.—It is said on good authority that work will begin early next spring on the electric railroad from this place to Hopkissville and Gothrie, Ky. Contracts are now being made to the North for the material, it is understood, and the enterprise is being backed by Chicago capital. All the rights of way have been secured in the name of Clarksville parties.

Who Got the Money.

A man, having had a sum of money left him at the death of his father, went to see his solicitor, who had the matter in hand, to arrange the final settlement. The bill of costs having been presented to him, the man glanced over the figures and, thinking the charges were excessively heavy, turned to his legal adviser in astonishment. "My father left his money to me—not to you!" he exclaimed.

ACCEPTS A NEW POSITION.

Mr. Lee Bolton has resigned his position with Michael Bros. of the city, effective January 1, and accepts a similar position with the Engleke Saddlery Co. of Cincinnati, with the same territory, Southwest Kentucky and Tennessee.

Miss Roosevelt's Characteristics.

Miss Roosevelt is said by a writer in Munsey's to have the distaste for old-fashioned domesticity which is more or less characteristic of the modern girl. Mrs. Roosevelt is an exquisite needlewoman. Her daughter's utmost efforts in that line are confined to the making of little gifts for her friends. Mrs. Roosevelt is a so-called housekeeper, as well as brilliant hostess. Miss Roosevelt, although she cheerfully enough answered any call for house duties at the family's Oyster Bay home, has always preferred a free, outdoor life. She is, however, scrupulous in social matters, keeping her calling lists posted with the exactness of a bank book and answering all invitations with her own hand. She is, moreover, an athletic young woman with an inherited fondness for walking.

Jail Cut Out of a Rock.

What is probably one of the most unique prisons in the world is located at Santa Rosalia, Lower California. It is cut out of the solid rock, the gates being made of thick iron bars. The prisoners never know how long they will be detained in this terrible place, as they are not allowed to be present at their trial—a interesting custom which practically insures their conviction, unless they are in a position to oil the machinery of justice. Their friends, if they have any, bring them food, as the state does not undertake to feed them, and they get their water for drinking and bathing out of a cask set outside the door. Altogether, the ordinary convict prison of America seems like a haven of luxury compared to this rock-hewn penitentiary.

To Render Happiness Perfect.

Two young women, patently of the "saleslady" persuasion, rode down Chestnut street in a crowded trolley car on a recent morning. They chatted animatedly about the merits of demerita of "Will" and "Gus" till they reached Broad street; from there to Twelfth they preserved a dreamy silence; then one broke out with: "I say, Ag, what would you choose if you could have everything in the world you asked for?"

"Well," said Ag, slowly and musingly, "I think I'd choose enough shirt waists to last me for the next ten years. What 'ud you take, Sadie?" "Not," replied Sadie. "It's the dream of me life, Ag, to have all the money I'd want, so I could go to me job in a cab every morning."—Philadelphia Times.

Wanted to Obey Orders.

The late distinguished architect, Richard M. Hunt, used to relate that in his younger days, while supervising the erection of a brick building, a recent arrival from Cork applied for a job and was employed as a hod-carrier after being instructed that he must always carry up fourteen bricks in his hod. One morning the supply of brick ran out, and do his best the new man could find but thirteen to put in his hod. In answer to a loud yell from the street one of the masons on the sixth-story staging shrieked down:

"What do you want?" "Trow me down wan brick," said Pat, pointing to his hod, "to make me number good."

New Public House Ideas.

Dunedin, New Zealand, now possesses a public house trust, organized on similar lines to that established by Earl Grey in England.

Some women could not be happy unless they were just buched up in trouble.
